

Thinking Ahead

Supporting people with learning disabilities and their families to plan for the future

TOGETHER MATTERS

Our Thinking Ahead guides help to achieve positive change by giving:

- Practical information on topics families need to know about
- Templates to encourage conversations and keep track of ideas
- Confidence when meeting with social workers and support providers

Take a look or download for free at www.togethertomatters.org.uk

Thinking Ahead:
a planning guide for families
Helping families see a way forward, with nine topics including:

- Making decisions
- Planning in a person-centred way
- Building support networks
- Making financial plans
- Housing and support
- Making an emergency plan

I'm Thinking Ahead

Involving people with learning disabilities in talking about their future, with four easy-read topics:

- How to plan
- How to get the right housing and support
- How to make choices
- How to be part of the world of work

Get in touch

We can help achieve change through:

- Workshops and talks for families
- Providing training for care managers, support providers, schools, colleges, advocacy groups and employment services

To find out more about our workshops and training go to:

www.togethertomatters.org.uk/young-people/or www.togethertomatters.org.uk/adult-life or email christine@togethertomatters.org.uk